The prophecy, which promised the coming of the fatemarked, who would bring peace to the lands, has been forgotten by many, while others believe it to be naught but a legend. Still, the truth of the ancient words has begun to come to pass, as there are those being born with strange markings that grant the bearers unusual powers.

If you're into epic fantasies where you can really feel the journey with the characters, I highly recommend the Fatemarked saga. I especially love how the author gives you little back stories about certain characters that become important to the plot but without confusing the reader by trying to shove it in the middle of the book somewhere.
