Hannibal Rising Quotes by Thomas Harris - Goodreads

I really enjoyed Hannibal rising imo, movie and book. I didn't even realize that there was a strong dislike for it. Observationally it could be that when you write a prequel of a well known character people have already had a lot of time to imagine their own 'beginnings' and when it's fleshed out and it doesn't meet their expectations and imagery of what they've built in their own heads then ...

Laying the psychological groundwork for the mind of Hannibal Lecter, this book still makes for reading at a sitting. I did. For future readers, that will truly be an experience in modern literature.
